

Liu Music

A Music School For All Ages

Specializing in building solid fundamental musical skills and ability, Liu Music school in a neat and child friendly learning environment offers private instrumental lessons for all levels, also provides different group programs for all ages from infants up through to adults as well.

At Liu Music, there are two programs for early childhood age children. Kindermusik®, awards winning program, commits to bring music to children's lives through developmentally appropriate curricula which empowering a child's cognitive, emotional, social, language, and physical development. Each Kindermusik class is a world of discovery and adventure which will develop in language skills, literacy, listening, problem solving, social skills, self-esteem, and musicality within an educational environment- full of energy, imagination, playful delight weaving among instruments playing, singing, dancing, and book reading. Nurturing Pathways®, a new program coming at Liu Music this Fall semester, is a creative dance experience with music curriculum that engages the whole body and brain for optimal development at very early stage of life. Through patterns of movement, rhyming exercise, sensory play, dancing, and playing along with varied instruments, each Nurturing Pathways class will stimulate and organize the sensorimotor systems which are undergoing critical and prime periods of development from birth to age three.

We also have three group piano programs offered. Music For Young Children™, research-based and age appropriate piano method, provides opportunities for beginners in small age-group to learn how to play piano, to develop music competency with musicianship, and to compose their own music. SUNSHINE class is designed for 3 to 4 year-old, and SUNBEAMS class is offered for 5 to 7 year-old. Piano Time is a great start in a creative and appealing way. Binding with theory, singing, ear training, sight reading, rhythm, ensemble, students will learn how to play piano, and to become a music lover through this piano adventure class. Piano Journey at lunch break will teach adults students at any level to play piano in a exciting and fun way. While you are building your keyboard knowledge, sense of rhythm and related theory, your skills and enjoyment will increase through those familiar and all time favorite melodies.
